Failure to commence –ALS is required to report any student default within 5 working days.

Pre-requisites– courses at ALS require a pre-requisite level of English, age and previous study, which can be found on the website and promotional material. Students who do not meet these requirements will not be able to commence study in this course, but will be offered a place in an different course. Any difference in fees will be the sole responsibility of the student.

ALS disclaims all liability for any direct or indirect loss arising out of using a 3rd party service.

Course Cancellation - If ALS is unable to deliver a course, a full refund of unused portion of prepaid tuition fees, material fees, and enrolment fee will be made within 2 weeks of the day on which the course ceased being provided. You may be offered enrolment in an alternative course at no extra cost, and have the right to choose whether you would prefer a refund of fees or to accept a place in another course, which must be done in writing.

- In the unlikely event that ALS ceases to operate and is unable to offer you a place in another course or a refund, for student visa holders the TPS will place you in a similar course at no charge. Any refund due to a default of ALS as the registered provider is covered by the provisions of the Education Services of Overseas Students Act 2000 (the ESOS Act) (as amended).

Complaints and Appeals – students are able to submit a complaint or appeal in person to their trainer or at reception or by email to enrol@ihbristbane.com.au; we will respond in 10 working days or less, and you will be informed in writing of the outcome. If you are unhappy with the outcome, you can take your complaint or appeal to an external body, such as the student ombudsman. Submitting a complaint does not affect your enrolment.

This written agreement, and the right to make complaints and seek appeals of decisions and action under various processes, does not affect the rights of the student to take an action under the Australian Consumer Law if the Australian Consumer Law applies.
