Our teachers are highly skilled in teaching international students and have extensive experience developing all levels of academic and English proficiency.

Cristina began teaching in 2009 as an undergraduate student within the QUT Faculty of Health. She began teaching at QUT College in 2017 as a unit coordinator and was a founding educator in the Diploma in Health Science.

'At QUT College, having fewer students in each class lets me connect better with them. We believe in a more equal partnership between teachers and students, rather than a one-way approach.'

CRISTINA BOWERS

Educator (Science and Health)

Rebecca has been teaching at QUT College for 10 years and has over 20 years experience specialising in teaching English to non-native speakers.

'Creating a classroom atmosphere where students feel at ease, secure and encouraged is truly wonderful. This allows them to explore language without any apprehension, find humour in their mistakes and celebrate their achievements together.'

REBECCA AXELSON

Educator (English language)

Wahyu began his teaching journey in 2004 as a first year Bachelor of Engineering tutor at QUT. In 2015 Wahyu began teaching at QUT College before becoming Discipline Lead in 2019.

'I take great satisfaction in providing students with the opportunity to build a foundational understanding of engineering concepts and linking this to real-world applications to foster a curiosity in understanding the role engineers have in shaping the world around us.'

WAHYU HASAN

Studying a diploma was a great start to my university education as it fast tracked my studies as I earned credit towards my bachelor degree.

You will get great support from your lecturers, and the learning environment is very flexible. The classes are small and interactive which makes it easy to network with both fellow students and the lecturer. I feel that it really helped me to build my confidence and skills to continue into my bachelor studies.

QUT is a vibrant and inclusive community.

Make the most of university life and embrace the full experience with everything that QUT has to offer.

Welcome Week at QUT

Make sure you put Welcome Week at the top of your must-do list. It takes place before classes start and will set you up for your time at QUT. More than just an orientation to uni life, Welcome Week is the beginning of your QUT journey.

- Find out about studying and living in Australia at 'New to QUT' international student sessions during Welcome Week.
- Choose from over 120 clubs with a focus on sport, politics, culture, religion or special interests—everything from Amnesty International to anime.
- Enjoy free activities on campus and in your new city.

Play sport and connect

Playing recreational or competitive sport is a great way to meet people and keep fit. Join weekly social sport programs or represent QUT in a range of sports including netball, tennis, football, esports, motorsport and swimming.

Our volunteer community

QUT offers a range of volunteer opportunities including QUT Connectors where you can contribute to building a vibrant campus community and help new students settle into university life. If you're passionate about helping other students succeed with their studies, consider getting involved with one of our peer mentor programs.

Inspiring Kelvin Grove campus

QUT College is located at our Kelvin Grove campus which is conveniently located just three kilometres from Brisbane's city centre.

It is part of the thriving Kelvin Grove Village that has shops, restaurants, a weekly market, residential units, parkland and fitness facilities. It is home to students studying at the college as well as those students studying creative industries, health, education and justice.

The campus features our Education Precinct that offers learning spaces, study pods and community areas interwoven with nature and technology. This space is home to the Sphere—a digital LED globe suspended over two floors with a changing menu of visual content.

Supporting student success at QUT

Everyone has goals.

Some are academic, some are personal. Whatever you have your sights set on, we're here to support you.

QUT College programs are designed to enable your successful transition to university. An essential aspect of your learning journey is the development of academic skills. QUT College students are enrolled in units that are designed to ensure academic skills are explicitly taught and developed. The focus is on building knowledge and essential capabilities to facilitate successful transition to, and completion of, undergraduate and postgraduate programs.

This embedded approach means that you do not necessarily need to register for upcoming workshops, although it is recommended if you feel that you would benefit from additional support. You are encouraged to approach your unit coordinators and tutors if you have any concerns with your learning.

A network of services

Moving to a new country can be a big change. We support international students making the transition to living in Brisbane and studying with QUT. We can help with:

- pre-arrival information and free airport reception
- accommodation services
- international orientation sessions
- academic writing, reading and English language skills.
- group study opportunities
- multifaith chaplaincy
- personal development programs
- social events and networking opportunities
- advice and counselling
- bringing your family
- adjusting and settling into life in Australia.

At QUT, you will have access to a range of free services. From getting feedback on assessments to practicing your presentation skills or learning how to manage your time, we're here to support you throughout your study journey. There are also several self-help resources to help you stay connected with your teachers and peers to maintain a healthy study-life balance.

QUT Medical Centres also provide quality health and medical services, information and advice.

HiQ student centre

Your success is important to us. That's why we have a dedicated student centre—HiQ—on both campuses. This is the place to go for all student services, technology support, library services and general enquiries. You can contact HiQ by chat, email, phone or face-to-face on campus.

Disability and accessibility services

If you have a disability, injury or health condition—whether it's permanent, temporary, episodic or fluctuating—talk to one of our disability advisers. It's free and confidential. Not sure if we offer the adjustments you need? Get in touch before you start studying to discuss your situation. Visit qut.edu.au/international/disability-support

Accommodation options

Our Accommodation Services team offers dedicated support to help you find the right place to live.

One of the most popular options is to rent a room in a student residential complex, which usually includes a bed, study desk and some storage, as well as shared bathrooms, kitchens and common areas.

The Kelvin Grove campus has two student residential complexes— Iglu at Kelvin Grove is situated on campus in the Kelvin Grove Village and UniLodge (School Street Studios) is just a close five minute walk to the campus. The Brisbane CBD has several student residential complexes including Student One, Space, Iglu and UniLodge which are all a short bus trip to Kelvin Grove. The free QUT shuttle bus travels every 15 minutes from Gardens Point campus direct to QUT Kelvin Grove.

Most rental fees are inclusive of water, electricity and gas, unlimited Wi-Fi, and use of communal facilities such as kitchens, BBQ areas, gaming and entertainment areas.

If you are under 18, our Student Services team can support you in finding appropriate accommodation and welfare arrangements before you start your studies at QUT.

I received a scholarship for my studies in the Diploma in Engineering as well as two Vacation Research Experience Scheme (VRES) scholarships which allowed me to concentrate on my studies and research, contributing to my overall academic success.

Interacting with classmates during lectures, group projects and study sessions provided opportunities to connect with fellow students who shared similar academic interests. I joined the QUT Reality Lab, and I found it to be a rewarding experience. This club allowed me to connect with peers who shared a similar interest in emerging technologies. It provided opportunities to explore cutting-edge technology and stay up to date with the latest developments in the field.

If you like what you've seen here, we look forward to receiving your application. Follow the simple steps below to make it as easy as possible. There is no need to delay as we accept applications all year round.

1 CHECK IF YOU MEET THE ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- Academic entry requirements.
- English language proficiency.
- Additional entry requirements.
- Consider a pathway option if you don't meet the direct entry requirements (see page 21).

Visit qut.edu.au/qut-college

2 CHECK IMPORTANT KEY DATES

- Check the key dates for application and acceptance deadlines at QUT.
- View the academic calendar.

Visit qut.edu.au/international/key-dates

3 PREPARE SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

- Academic records from your prior study.
- English language proficiency test scores.
- Some applications require a statement of purpose.

4 SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION

You have two options:

- You can submit your application online via the QUT Application Portal at student-qut.studylink.com;
or
- You can apply through a registered representative. A QUT official education representative is required for applicants from certain countries.

Visit qut.edu.au/study/international/find-a-representative

5 ACCEPT YOUR OFFER

- Receive a QUT offer letter.
- Satisfy any outstanding conditions outlined in your offer letter.
- Formally accept your offer.
- Pay your acceptance deposit fee to be admitted into your course.
- If you apply through a representative, they will guide you through the acceptance steps.
- If you apply directly to QUT, you can complete your acceptance through the application portal. Visit qut.edu.au/international/accept-your-offer

6 AFTER YOU ACCEPT YOUR OFFER

- Receive a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) for student visa purposes.
- Activate your student account to gain access to your email, services and systems.
- View your study plans, enrol and register in classes and begin your journey. Visit qut.edu.au/international/getting-prepared
